Get a glimpse inside the homes and interior projects of three designers that create rugs, and see some delightful custom rugs in place

Jersey City loft

This loft apartment within a disused church in New Jersey sports spectacular architectural features that appear boldly oversized up close. It belongs to the Fort Street Studio VP and interior designer Paul Melo. Circular skylights add a nautical feel and cool blue Fort Street rugs—Two Stroke Indigo and Swig Indigo—contribute to the ecclesiastical calm.
